NIFAA~an Inspirational Journey

National Integrated Forum of Artists and Activists (NIFAA), a pioneering organization established in September 2000, has been a driving force for social change, cultural preservation, and public welfare. Originally founded as the National Institute of Fine Arts Samiti by the renowned social worker Pritpal Singh Pannu, NIFAA emerged as a non-governmental organization dedicated to uplifting communities and addressing critical social challenges. It soon evolved into the National Integrated Forum of Artists and Activists, reflecting its expanded mission and national reach.

NIFAA has carved a unique identity through its tireless efforts to tackle some of society's most pressing issues. The organization leads impactful campaigns to raise awareness and combat the scourges of HIV/AIDS, drug addiction, female feticide, and dowry-related violence. Beyond these, it is a steadfast advocate for the empowerment of marginalized communities, patriotic unity, environmental conservation, and the promotion of Indian folk arts and culture. NIFAA also plays a pivotal role in championing women's empowerment, child welfare, and organizing adventure excursions—all while fostering community engagement through culturally rooted initiatives. The public's enthusiastic participation is a testament to NIFAA's ability to resonate deeply with the community. Through its two primary branches—the Artists' Wing and the Activists' Wing—NIFAA carries out its diverse mission. The Artists' Wing promotes Indian cultural heritage by collaborating with artists from around the globe, creating a robust platform for preserving India's artistic legacy. The Activists' Wing works as a catalyst for meaningful social transformation, advocating for justice and sustainable development.

NIFAA's exemplary contributions have earned it numerous accolades, including the prestigious National Youth Award, conferred by the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Government of India, recognizing it as the best youth organization in the country. In addition, NIFAA holds an impressive record of six Guinness World Records, achieved for its groundbreaking efforts in spreading awareness on gender equality, world peace, nuclear disarmament, and AIDS awareness, as well as promoting the traditional Indian dance form Kathak and advancing public health initiatives. In its endeavors, NIFAA has garnered support from a wide array of esteemed organizations at both national and international levels, including the International AIDS Society, the Japan Foundation, the Ministry of Art & Culture, Mauritius, the Global Organization of People of Indian Origin, and the Haryana State AIDS Control Society, among others. These collaborations underscore NIFAA's global influence and its unwavering commitment to its cause.

With an expansive presence across 28 states and union territories of India and a vibrant network of over 7,000 dedicated youth volunteers, NIFAA is relentlessly forging ahead on its mission to build a just, equitable, and culturally enriched society. Every day, the organization strengthens its commitment to creating a peaceful world, leaving an indelible mark on the lives it touches.
